

Kredittilsynet (The Financial Supervisory Authority of Norway) warns against investment offers marketed by Davis Mayer Group

Kredittilsynet has been informed that Davis Mayer Group (address: Doosan Building, 10th Floor, 105-7 Nonhyun-dong, Gangnam-Ku, Seoul 135-010, South Korea) has contacted Norwegian investors and offered to carry out financial services. The company also offers services from the website <http://www.davismayer.com/>. Further Kredittilsynet has been notified that the company also uses the name Thomas Castle Management (8th Floor, Kasumigaseki Building, 3-2-5 Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 100-6010, Japan. og 305a, M.G. Building, 150 Amorsolo St., Legaspi Village, 1230 Makati City, Philippines).

Kredittilsynet informs that Davis Mayer Group has not received any approval to perform investment services in Norway, involving that the company does not have necessary authorisation in accordance with Norwegian law. This also involves that Kredittilsynet does not supervise the company and has not approved the services offered by the company. Kredittilsynet therefore recommends that investors do not enter into agreements or transfer values to Davis Mayer Group.

Kredittilsynet's registry contains information on all companies which are authorized to offer investment services in Norway. A list (not complete), of parties in the market which operate without approval, can also be found on Kredittilsynet's website.
